1.0 Purpose

This policy outlines where the University may issue a fee refund.

2.0 Description

Application fee and course deposits paid are non-refundable.

No fee refund can be made to a student if the student owes fees to the University. Refunds may only be made in the following circumstances:

- (i) When an amount in excess of the total fee due has been paid.
- (ii) When a student has made a payment and subsequently transfers to another third level institution as a result of a higher CAO offer.
- (iii) When a student formally withdraws from the University and this results in a credit balance on their account.
- (iv) When the University receives the full fee payment, from a granting authority or a sponsor, on behalf of a student who has already paid their fees in full.
- (v) International students who have paid some or all of their fees to the University but are subsequently unsuccessful in their visa application will be refunded the amount they have paid, less an administrative fee within 60 days of formal withdrawal, on provision of appropriate evidence of visa refusal.
